This 3-day course is designed to be delivered to teams of campus personnel (and other stakeholders) who are responsible for developing, reviewing, implementing, and exercising their campus emergency operations plan. This course provides institutions of higher education with knowledge and strategies to enhance their capacity to protect lives and property within the context of comprehensive emergency management.

The training is highly interactive, utilizing class exercises coupled with numerous individual and small group activities including a realistic campus emergency operations center functional exercise.

*NOTE: Before April 3rd, registrants must complete FEMA's IS-100.HE: Introduction to the Incident Command System for Higher Education, a 3-hour online independent study, in order to attend this course. Please bring a copy of your certificate of completion with you on April 3rd. Click here to access IS-100.HE.
