

2017 Illinois Problem-Oriented Policing Conference

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

DEADLINE: July 1, 2017

The 2017 Illinois Problem-Oriented Policing Conference will be September 21-22, 2017 at the Embassy Suites Hotel in East Peoria, Illinois.

The annual Illinois Problem-Oriented Policing Conference is designed to bring law enforcement executives, managers, and supervisors together to examine critical issues that challenge today's law enforcement organization.

Problem-Oriented Policing emphasizes the need to engage both internally and externally in a number of areas.

Speaker proposals will be accepted under the categories listed below. Deadline to submit proposals is July 1, 2017. All submissions must be made online.

Categories for the 2017 conference include but are not limited to:

- Social Service Issues (e.g. Homelessness, Non-Transient and Response to Persons with Mental Illness, Heroin and Prescription Drugs, Alcohol-Related Violence)
- Organizational Transformation (e.g. Information Sharing in Agencies, Role of Field Training in POP Model)
- Real-Estate Related Issues (e.g. Foreclosed properties, Owner-occupied, Crime-free Housing, Burglary Reduction, Metal Theft)
- Combating the Erosion of Public Confidence in Police
- POP Implementation Issues (e.g. Successes, Budgetary Constraints, Integration in COPS)
- Crime Analysis (e.g. Successes, Use of Social Media for Analysis, Police Efficiency)
- Communities (e.g. Interaction, Use of Information During Large Disturbances, Crime Prevention through Environmental Design, Policing in a College Town)
- Technology (e.g. Sexting Investigations, New Technology, Impact of Body-Cameras, Stalking, Cell Phone Larceny)

Conference Date and Location

The conference will be held September 21-22, 2017 at the Embassy Suites Hotel in East Peoria, IL.

Selection Criteria

Presentation selection is based on the following criteria:

- Topical relevance to the identified categories and Problem-Oriented Policing concepts
- Clear statement of relevance to objectives of Problem-Oriented Policing (for more information see <http://www.popcenter.org/about/?p=elements>)
- Identification of how the initiative/presentation fits into the SARA model (for more information see <http://www.popcenter.org/about/?p=sara>)
- Description of how attendees may benefit from the presentation
- Original work of the presenter
- Speaker's topic expertise and knowledge
- Speaker's presentation experience and skill level

Submission

Presentation submission deadline: July 1, 2017. The Call for Presentation Submission Process is available HERE to the direct link.

Presenter Selection

Selection of presenters will be announced via e-mail on or before July 15, 2017. Selected presenters must confirm their commitment to present by August 1, 2017. Corresponding papers and/or presentations may be published by the ILETSEI following the 2017 conference.

Compensation

- Presenters will receive one complimentary lodging night at the conference host hotel
- Presenters will be offered a 50% reduced registration fee to attend the entire conference
- Travel and other expenses incurred will be the responsibility of the presenter

If you have further questions, please contact Joanne Kurt-Hilditch at the ILETSEI Executive Institute via email j-kurt-hilditch@wiu.edu or phone at (309)298-2646.

CLICK HERE TO SUBMIT YOUR PROPOSAL